

CANDACE JU
ASSOCIATE DESIGNER

A graduate of Carnegie Mellon University's School of Architecture, Candace Ju joined Charles Rose Architects in 2018 with an interest in design-build project delivery and sustainable and civic design. Candace demonstrates excellent project management and design and detailing skills. As an Associate, she also participates in the firm's overall management. Prior to CRA, Candace contributed to the research and development of new housing concepts to address emerging and vulnerable communities in Pennsylvania. Recently, she worked on the expanded headquarters of Nimbus Therapeutics. Currently, she is leading the design and construction of a residential project in Massachusetts.
